

Connections: Core, Options, Learning & Lunch

A Student-Faculty Discussion

TUESDAY, APRIL 10, 2018

12:00 – 12:50 PM

Brennan Conference Room, CSS Building, 3rd Floor

Making connections among concepts, methods, skills, and ways of thinking taught in different courses is a powerful form of learning and building expertise. But it's not always easy to accomplish—especially in the frosh year!

Come for lunch and discussion to explore:

- How to make the most of inter-course connections
- Other new ideas for the Core and Options

RSVP:
goo.gl/8Le59s

This event is part of the Inclusive Caltech Core (IC<sup>2</sup>) Project, a joint effort of the Vice Provost, Deans, CCD, and CTLO.

CS course map image by J. Lee and A. Chelikani, CS 141 Project. Note that this event is not just about CS courses, but is an example of visualizing connections among classes.